POTENTATE'S MESSAGE

We "R" For The Kids!

Well, again, it's been a busy month of potentating! We were able to Cold Sands a new noble, John Jorgenson, with his first-line signer, Illustrious Sir Bob Wedberg. John is Bob's neighbor and knows many members of our own Provost Guard.

huge congratulations to Kem Shrine for hosting this year's festivities. It was a very well-thought-out event, with something for everyone, from local tours, golfing and shooting to some friendly competitions. It all started Wednesday night, followed by a parade in Crookston, Minn., on Thursday night. Bright and early Friday morning, the Motor Corps competition was held. Our very own Director's Staff competed in the 2-wheel heavy class, and they didn't disappoint. For many of our riders, it was their first-ever competition. I enjoyed watching their new routine. I'm sure there will be more to come in this month's Director's Staff article in Camel Tales about this year's MSA.

El Zagal also had a couple of cornhole teams in this year's MSA. Tim Dawson and I (Team A) got clobbered. But Team B, Waylon Boyer and Illustrious Sir Travis Will, did quite well! They made it to the championship match, held during Shrine-A-Rama for all to see: El Zagal vs. Kem! Well, we didn't win the match, but fun was had by all! What a great evening. We got a great group photo. Look at it below! Saturday morning, the rain stopped just in time for us to enjoy a huge parade in downtown Grand Forks to close out this year's MSA.

Up next is El Zagal's Pro-Am golf tournament at Oxbow. Then it's another trip out to Jamestown for the Bob Lucy Fish Fry. Soon after that, the famous Bierstube will be held here in Fargo. And before you know it, October will be here, bringing the Crab Feed. Be sure to get out there and join in the fun and entertainment!

That's all for now.

Next up, we headed back to Jamestown for Fishin' For A Cause. What a wonderful event put on by our Jamestown Mystics! The event was held at Lazy Fish at Pelican Point Landing on the Jamestown Reservoir. This was the seventh annual event, and the Mystics knocked it out of the park: They sold out all of their raffle tickets! Fishin', food, games, bubbles and bouncy fun were all part of the day. More than 40 fantastic items donated by the community were given away to lots of lucky winners. My Lady Kim and I had a really good time. Thanks to all the hardworking Mystic nobles and their ladies for putting on such a fun-filled event! We can't wait to go back out for the eighth annual.

Now for some Masonic news. Worshipful Bob Simmers is hard at work spreading the word and bringing more attention to Masonry. We all know that before you can become a Shriner, you first have to be a Mason. Well, a lot of people don't! Bob has assembled a team to raise funds and spend time building a process so that we can do just that: get the word out about Masonry. We have another meeting this September to keep up the momentum from our first meeting just a couple of weeks ago. If you attended the last stated meeting, our Grand Master spoke about this very topic. We're just getting started, and we're asking our nobility to start thinking about this year's Parade to Glory and about donating to this very important cause. More to come.

Since we're talking about Masonry, we just had our Masonic Corn Feed here at El Zagal. I ate my weight in corn and enjoyed all the company this event brings. Thank you to all involved in this event. Well done!

Lastly, we just finished up with this year's MSA in Grand Forks. First,

GRAND MASTER

Greetings, Nobles:

Isn't it funny how summer just slips away? Here we are in the middle of August, and the kids are preparing for school and, in some cases, have already started. Where did the summer go?

We recently attended the MSA in Grand Forks. Kem Temple did an excellent job hosting this annual event. It was a great three days of fun, food and fellowship. If you have never attended an MSA, you need to add that to your bucket list. It is an experience you will never forget.

We at your Grand Lodge have been busy making new brothers. On August 8, there was a "one-day" class held in Edgeley. On that long and fruitful day, we raised five new Masons. Membership lies in the hands of the members. You are the ones who have community and social connections. It is you who can single out qualified candidates and recommend them for membership in our fraternal organizations. It is you who can help build a better lodge, thus laying the foundation for new Nobles who will serve the fraternity well. When was the last time you signed a petition for a new or prospective brother?

We are preparing for the Grand Lodge's first Quarterly Meeting, to be held at the Minot Masonic Center on September 26. If you have any items you feel we should address, please contact me.

Respectfully,
Bob Simmers
Grand Master
Grand Lodge of North Dakota A.F.&A.M.

REDNECKS

Well, a few of the Rednecks are finally home and rested after Grand Forks, and what a phenomenal adventure it was!

While we were there, we took in the Bee Keeper Degree from Wa Wa and the Hillbilly Degree from Packerland Clan #181. A few of us even experienced the unforgettable, and very unofficial, BLT Sandwich Degree, courtesy of one of El Zagal's own.

Nothing about this weekend was short of amazing. Great people, great brotherhood and plenty of laughs.

HAWAIIAN HOEDOWN

For all Nobles planning to attend this year's Hawaiian Hoedown, here are some convenient lodging options in the area:

Roughrider Motor Inn — Hazen

Dated, but clean and right in town.

701-748-2209

Cobblestone Hotel — Beulah

One of the nicest hotel options in the area.

701-873-2370

AmericInn — Beulah

Another solid option just down the road.

701-873-2220

Lewis & Clark RV Park — Hazen

Located roughly two blocks south of the Hoedown site. We are currently coordinating with the Park Board to secure spaces for Shriners.

701-748-2267

www.hazenparks.com

Antelope Creek RV Park — Hazen

701-748-2267

www.hazenparks.com

Both Hazen RV parks offer comfort stations on-site for added convenience.

We are also working on transportation arrangements for Nobles staying in both Hazen and Beulah.

If needed, we will once again enlist a few willing Rednecks to help shuttle attendees back and forth, just as we did last year.

Our goal is simple: Make sure everyone can attend, enjoy the Hoedown and not have to worry about getting to and from their lodging.

October 10 will be here before we know it.

Get your rooms reserved, dust off those Hawaiian shirts and get ready for another outstanding Shriners adventure!

See you all at the Hawaiian Hoedown!

JAMESTOWN CLOWNS

Hello to all Nobles and Ladies,

Now September is here. Our August meeting was an extremely informative meeting. Things seem to get intense in the fall.

The "PATCH" is next on our list, September 19 through October 18.

The MEDINA Parade is Sept. 12. It starts at 10:30 a.m.; lineup begins at 9:30. Craig and Debbie are hosts. It should be a good one. It is our 26th parade of the 2026 season.

August 28 is the infamous Bob Lucy Fish Fry. Rod and his crew are getting things lined up as we speak. It should be a night to remember. I was thinking Rod is a good name for a fishing guy, probably an Ugly Stick.

Tory ran another meeting like unseen in Clowndom. He is over the halfway mark and still passionate, vehement, fervent and animated, as he demonstrated by moving our table and chairs around. Thumbs up to Tory!!

I, however, was told about the non-article in the August Camel Tales, so if you have been wondering, keep reading.

August report:

August is here. Our July meeting was very informative, as Jack told us Tory was home sick with fever and throwing up and maybe diarrhea, and Jack was laughing so hard it was uncomfortable to listen to.

Rory took the meeting to a new level. We discussed everything on the agenda at length and voted on several issues. Several people gave reports on upcoming parades. Finally, people started walking out, and it was over. It was 7:10.

Shrine Club was a complete success, and also my 67th birthday. The "PATCH" is getting weed-free slowly but surely.

The parade in Wimbledon was a hit. Al Gering was a marvelous host. The Water Carnival Parade was as wet as ever. After you are soaked, how much wetter can you get? Thanks to the Color Guard for their hospitality, as always. If this comes out after the Buffalo City Parade, it was fantastic. Thanks to Jack for being host. Clown for a Night is getting worked on. Thanks to Dave and Chuck, you guys are great!!! Which brings us to: WE ARE THE BEST UNIT IN EL ZAGAL!!!!!!

Thanks for reading this...

Weezer.
